There is frequent recognition of work done behind the scenes, but there is infrequent recognition of work done before the scenes. What scenes are we talking about?

We are talking of the scenes of the thousands of students that have enrolled in CBC during the past twenty-seven years.

Before our arrival as new students, we searched and we experimented, but only we and our shadow existed.

In our search we found the meaning to our existence: knowing Jesus Christ.

God guided our investigation here to deepen our relationship with Him.

Who worked before the scenes of our arrival?

Who opened our first letters of inquiry?

Who faithfully supplied us with adequate preliminary information?

We would like to thank and recognize the one to whom this annual is dedicated for directing and preparing for the admittance of the thousands of students that have enrolled here in the past twenty-seven years.

We, the class of '73, dedicate the 1972 Finial to you.

*“For every thing there is a season,
and a time for every purpose
under heaven.”*

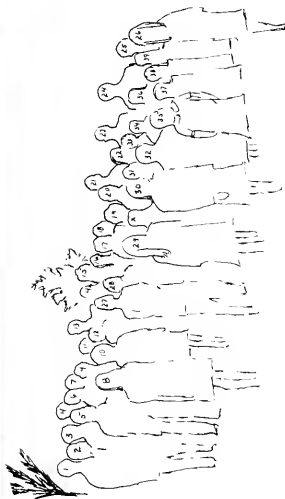

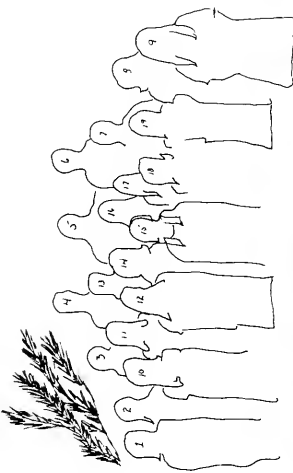

'All this have I proved in wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. That which is, is far off and exceeding deep; who can find it out? I turned about, and my heart was set to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the reason of things, and to know that wickedness is folly, and that foolishness is madness.'

“Because the teacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he pondered, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs. The teacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written uprightly, even words of truth.”

IN MEMORIAM

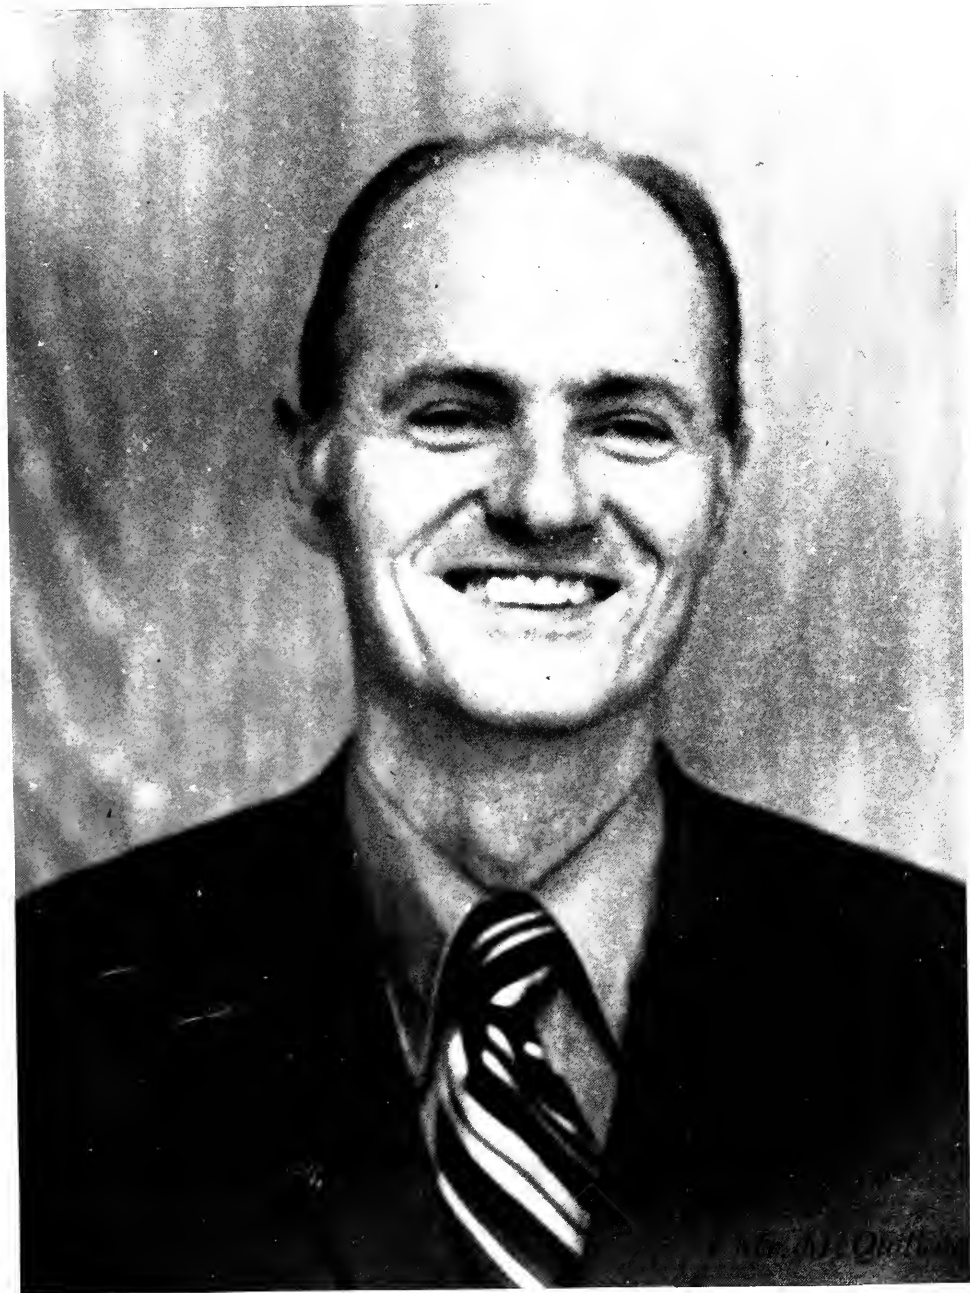

*Mrs. George W. Supplee
1894-1972*

Through the years, "Mom" and "Pop" Supplee have had a very special ministry with scores of alumni and students by their loving interest, faithful correspondence, and prevailing prayer. After a crippling accident and difficult months of suffering, "Mom" slipped into the presence of the Lord on January 10. She will be remembered as one who "hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken from her," who "sat at Jesus' feet and heard His Word," and who enriched the lives of all who knew her.

*Reverend Norwell Frye
1913-1971*

To all who knew him, and especially to those with whom he worked "behind the scenes," the grace and love of the Lord was constantly manifested. Mr. Norwell Frye, formerly pastor of a church in Maine, worked side by side with the kitchen staff at C.B.C. for five years. His passing, after a short illness, impressed upon us again the need to turn to God for the solace and joy His Word affords. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints" (Psalm 116:15).

SOCCER

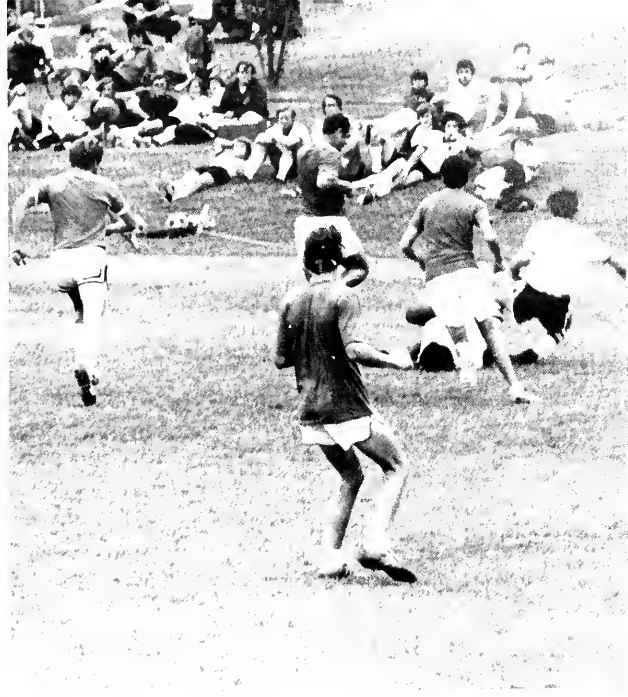

Let's go, Cougars! Beat the Gamecocks! The Cougars are a new breed of cats that have successfully thwarted the Gamecocks of USC each year. This season began with the first game on the Carolina field. Although the Gamecocks had greatly improved from last year, the Cougars with only two practices defeated the 'Birds' 7-6.

The season also included a game with Montreat-Anderson College. The Cougars brought home another exciting victory, 3-0.

The finale was played in a return match with USC. The tension mounted as USC dominated the first three quarters; yet the Cougars were not to be denied a perfect winning season, scoring 5-3.

All spectators will agree that the Cougars have successfully inaugurated their new name for the 1971 soccer season.

BASKETBALL

This year the basketball team has been one of those starting from the bottom. Because graduation depleted all but three of last year's squad, Coach Matthews has had to pattern a new offense for his young team.

Each year the team competition seems tougher, but the Cougars have made the adjustments well, considering their once-a-week practices. They have won the league championship once, in 1965, but have since earned a berth in the play-offs.

The Cougars participate in a commercial business league of many good ball clubs, some comprised of All-Americans who have an advantage in age and experience. Yet the Cougars are young and fast, and thus far have compiled a record of 3 wins and 3 losses.

This year the season ends with the commercial league double elimination play-off in addition to some collegiate competition with Toccoa Bible College, and for the first time ever—a game with Piedmont Bible College.

Student Council

This year the Student Activities Committee has attempted to help bridge the gap between faculty and students. They arranged monthly Sunday night rap sessions when students were able to rap with the faculty on topics including rock music, war, and self-defense.

For the first time each class sponsored monthly singouts. Consistently, students were seen packed into the Commons ready to vocalize their praise to our God with songs and testimonies.

Student involvement in various contests—including the Blood Drive, Class Spirit, Name the Team, Skit Night, and State and Country Day—has helped to break the monotony of studies. Most of all it has served the highest objective of this committee: encouraging an atmosphere for vital fellowship and fun.

Foreign Missions Fellowship

F.M.F. is an organization run by the students to serve the students. This is accomplished by chapels devoted to special speakers and prayer for missions. Saturday evening programs present the needs and problems of missions world-wide; prayer groups concentrate on specific geographical areas enabling individuals to share and support those who work in different parts of God's vineyard.

This year F.M.F. challenged student interest in missions, and sought to answer questions that face students as they respond to God's leading in a changing world. As Christ is kept central, He is able to work in the hearts of the students.

This year the Radio Club saw advances in several areas. They initiated early morning broadcasts on WCBC and provided the campus with breakfast music.

The Radio Club also began the trial project of a ham station to serve CBC. When this project is fully developed, it will benefit the student body by providing instant communication with the foreign lands.

Above all, students have learned to work together, to help and be helped, as they have sought to serve our campus in the technical world for His glory.

The student newspaper, the CeBeCean, in addition to daily news and sports reporting, contains features of campus interest. For example, the CeBeCean has printed personality sketches, Christian Service reports, a Woman's Column, a Nurse's Advisory Column, and the New Peanuts.

An innovation for this year is a weekly publication of the newspaper — totalling nearly thirty issues annually. Supplements containing literary productions of our own school talent have also been added. Campus announcements and other items of general interest are now being incorporated in one place — the student newspaper.

Summer Jobs Now Available

Senator Strom Thurmond (R-SC) said that applications for a limited number of summertime jobs in federal agencies are now open. They range from laborers' jobs through clerical and professional. Assignments are available, many of which do not require passage of an examination. The number of jobs may be relatively small and applicants cannot be assured of employment. Information requests on available jobs and applications should be directed to this address: Summer Employment, U.S. Civil Service Commission, 1900 E Street, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20415.

World Watching

The president of the New York City Board of Education, Isaiah E. Robinson, recently stated publicly that "if astrology is correct, behavioral problems in the classroom are caused by a conflict in birth signs between pupils or between pupils and teacher." Robinson called on the American educational system to include astrology along with other training or help teachers to understand their pupils.

There is increasing speculation along with some evidence that as a result of the New American policy toward Red China, Taiwan will begin clamping down on visas for new American missionaries seeking to enter the island. For nearly two decades Taiwan has been open and cordial to Christian missionaries.

2. It must be practical and workable.
3. It must be in 50 words or less.
4. It does not need to be original.
5. All students of CBC are eligible to enter.
6. All entries must be received by 5:00 on Monday, Dec. 6th.
7. Submit your entries to the CeBeCean office directly or through the campus mail.
8. No entries will be returned.
9. A panel of three faculty members will decide the best - their decision is final.

Alumni

President Hayman

The Columbia Bible College Alumni Association defines alumni in a much broader sense than most colleges do, for it considers not only the graduated students as members, but also any former students who show continued interest in the college.

One of the alumni contributions is that of channeling students to the college. Many alumni send their own children; others recommend CBC to prospective students.

The alumni also play a significant role in their financial aid to the college. Tuition and fees pay only a scant two-thirds of the cost to train a student at CBC. The balance is financed by contributing friends, over one half of whom are alumni.

CONCLUSION

From his creaturely position under the sun man saw only the reverse of tapestry.

Man saw all the days of his life as vain; he spent them as a shadow.

Man experimented with every "color" of life.

Man was not content with a meaningless existence. Man sought the reason for his existence.

The conclusion of the matter is this. All hath been heard: fear God, and keep His commandments; for this is the whole duty of man

And God granted him that which he requested — significance in the universe based on the absolute truth and character of God.

TO SERVICE!

Missionary societies are not machines. At least, not the good ones. They live.

South America Mission lives In the feelings, desires, aspirations of its missionaries. In the deliberations of its Board of Directors. In the concern of its leaders. In its witness among Latins and primitive Indians in Peru, Bolivia, Brazil, and Colombia.

Consider the possibility of sharing your life with SAM. We could be your passport to Christian service.

If you're available to Jesus Christ, we ought to get acquainted. We want to hear what God has been telling you about His will for your life.
